

Independent Due to Dependent Child

During the review of your application for financial aid DMACC was not able to determine that you will provide more than 50% support for the child listed in the household size you reported on your 2021-2022 FAFSA. In order to determine your level of support for the child, you must complete this form (print and complete by hand) and return it to the DMACC Financial Aid Office. DMACC will not continue to process your application for financial aid until this form is completed and returned.
