

2021-2022 Bankruptcy Form

Student Name (please print)

DMACC ID#

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates you have one or more student loans in an active bankruptcy. Before you can receive any additional federal student financial aid, you must read and check the statement below which applies to your current situation

- If the federal aid listed on the active bankruptcy is a defaulted student loan and/or grant overpayment, then you must provide our office with documentation from the holder of the debt stating the debt is dischargeable or has been discharged. Our office will review your eligibility upon receipt of this documentation.
- If the federal aid listed on the active bankruptcy is a defaulted student loan and/or grant overpayment that is NOT dischargeable or has not been discharged, then you must make satisfactory payment arrangements with the holder of the debt before being considered eligible for federal financial aid.
- The federal aid listed on the active bankruptcy is NOT a defaulted student loan and/or grant overpayment

By signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct.
